

ART - Learning Journey

Externally Set Assignment worth 40%

Knowledge: Understand how to interpret a theme and develop ideas within your sketchbook through researching and responding to a range of artists and sources. Resulting in the planning and creation of a personal and ambitious final piece completed under exam conditions (10hrs)

Continue Coursework Portfolio worth 60%

Knowledge: Understand how to interpret a theme and develop ideas within your sketchbook through researching and responding to a range of artists and sources. To create a personal and ambitious final outcome.

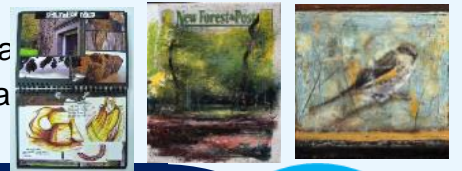

11

Coursework Portfolio worth 60%

Knowledge: Understand how to interpret a theme and develop ideas within your sketchbook through researching and responding to a range of artists and sources.

Foundation Workshops

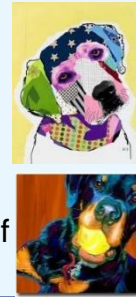

Knowledge: Understand how to work from observation and how to handle a wide range of materials; through exploring different disciplines, inspired by a range of both contemporary and modern artists.

10

Expressive Dogs

Knowledge: Learn how different artists have been inspired by the subject of dogs and apply this to create your response to a range of artists.

Coral

Knowledge: Learn how different artists explore the theme of coral and how to design and create your very own clay coral piece.

Portraiture

Knowledge: Understand how portraiture has evolved over time researching and responding to a range of contemporary and traditional artists.

9

Day of The Dead

Knowledge: Learn about the Day of the Dead festival and apply this knowledge to design and create your own very own Mexican inspired cushion.

Rural Landscape

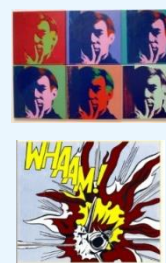

Knowledge: Learn how different artists have been inspired by rural landscape.

8

Pop Art

Knowledge: Learn who created Pop Art and why. Learn how to adopt similar graphic approaches to create your own Pop Art pieces.

7

Formal Skills

Knowledge: Learn the formal elements; line, tone, texture, shape, form, pattern, colour and how to handle a wide range of materials.

Gaudi Vs El Pez

Learn how to analyse, compare and respond to both a traditional and contemporary artist.

welcome